Biomedical Engineering International Conference

"The Future of Biomedical Engineering - from Vision to Reality"

4-6 December 2014, Hong Kong Productivity Council

BME 2014
Biomedical Engineering International Conference
HONG KONG

1st ANNOUNCEMENT AND CALL FOR ABSTRACT

Biomedical Engineering covers the application of a wide view in engineering to the field of biology and medicine, from subcellular level to the scale of hospital administration. The Hong Kong Institution of Engineers (HKIE) - Biomedical Division is calling a 3-day conference for colleagues in the field to share the results of advances in biomedical engineering.

Important Dates

◆ Deadline for all submissions   30 Sept 2014

◆ Notification of acceptance   1 Nov 2014

◆ Deadline for early bird registration 12 Nov 2014

◆ BME2014 Conference   4-6 Dec 2014

Submissions of original work regarding the application of any aspects of engineering to the medical field are now invited. Presentations are being solicited in areas including but not limited to the following:

- Bioinformatics & Biological signal processing
- Biomaterials
- Biomechanics
- Health technology assessment
- Nano/Micro Biosensors & Genetic engineering
- Neuroscience & Rehabilitation engineering
- Medical electronics
- Medical imaging
- Medical device regulatory affairs
- Medical instrumentation
- Nanotechnology and micro-electro-mechanical systems
- Pharmaceutical engineering
- Physiological modelling
- Standards & product approval
- Technology transfer & entrepreneurship
- Telemedicine and telehealth
- Tissue engineering

For details of submission and Student Papers Competition, exhibition and poster session, please refer to the conference website.

Instructions of Abstract:

English is the official language. The authors must strictly adhere to the instructions for preparation of the abstract. All abstracts for BME2014 must be submitted by email to bme2014@hkpc.org by 30 Sept 2014 as PDF file. The attached files should not be larger than 4 MB. Abstracts that meet standards of acceptability will be included in the printed Conference proceedings.

The abstract is limited to one A4 size page (210x297mm), with two columns of text, justified. Left and right margins should be 15 mm, top and bottom 20 mm. Type font is Times New Roman or Times Roman 10 pt.

It is best if abstracts are formatted using template document (MS Words and PDF) as a template. Please do not change formatting within the template document, as this may cause problems when including abstracts in the printed proceedings. The Conference organization reserves the right to reject abstracts that do not adhere to the formatting guidelines in this document.

Format:

Abstracts to be submitted for BME2014 Proceedings must follow the instructions given by BME2014 Conference. The format is available in MS Words and PDF versions.
